FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SOUTH HAVEN, MI - The South Haven Board of Education moved one step closer to potentially hiring a new superintendent Tuesday evening. The position became available after the resignation of former superintendent, Dr. Robert Herrera, who accepted a position of Superintendent/CEO in Benton Harbor. After initial interviews with four candidates, the Board decided to invite one candidate back for a second interview.

The interview will be held on Tuesday, November 13. Kevin Schooley, currently the Superintendent in Watervliet, will be interviewed at 6:00 pm.

South Haven Board President, Laura Bos said, "We were very pleased to have four outstanding candidates to interview. Each one had strengths in areas that matched our profile. The task of narrowing down the pool was difficult. In the end, the Board felt Mr. Schooley provides the best fit for South Haven and has offered him a second interview. The Board would like to thank all those who provided their input to help us in this process. It has been, and will be, a very important tool for us to use during the process."

Prior to the interview an open house will be held from 5:00 to 6:00 pm, giving the public an opportunity to meet and visit with the candidate. The open house and interview will take place at South Haven High School located at 600 Elkenburg Street in South Haven. The public is encouraged to attend.
